Friends, this is the opportunity that the Great Commission Day Offering affords. It's not too late to invite your church to participate so that many of our international teams can achieve the critical mass of workers needed to break through to peoples still beyond their reach. Three quarters of the nearly $400,000 raised so far in the Offering came from the 136 U.S. Alliance churches (less than 7 percent) that chose to participate. And as Dennis Whalen, vice president for Development, reminded Council Missions Rally attendees two weeks ago, "Imagine what we could do with 100 percent participation."
